I. Purpose

This Youth Diversion Plan is adopted pursuant to Article 45.306 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. Its purpose is to reduce juvenile recidivism, promote early intervention for at-risk youth, and provide alternatives to formal criminal prosecution for eligible juveniles accused of non-traffic Class C misdemeanors.

II. Scope

This plan applies only to children who are at least 10 years of age and under the age of 17 alleged to have committed an offense punishable by fine only, excluding traffic offenses.

III. Diversion Strategies

The court may use one or more of the following strategies authorized under Article 45.305:

- Referral to Teen Court or peer-led accountability programs
- Enrollment in educational or rehabilitative programs such as:
 - Alcohol or drug awareness
 - Anger management or conflict resolution
 - Life skills or decision-making courses
- Mental health screening and/or counseling referrals
- Participation in school-based behavioral programs
- Academic tutoring or GED preparation
- Community service (not to exceed 20 hours)
- Restitution (not to exceed $100 for property offenses)
- Participation in a mentoring program

IV. Diversion Agreement Requirements

Diversion agreements under this plan will:

- Identify the child and parent/legal guardian as parties
- Set measurable, reasonable goals considering the child's age and circumstances
- Include a defined term not to exceed 180 days
- Explain that the agreement is not a finding of guilt and no plea is required
- Include written acknowledgment by both the child and parent/guardian

V. Implementation Process

- Diversion may occur before or after a complaint is filed, at the discretion of the court or youth diversion coordinator
- Participation is voluntary and requires written consent of both the child and parent/guardian
- A case will be closed upon successful completion of the agreement
- Unsuccessful completion may result in referral to court for further proceedings under Article 45.311

VI. Oversight and Coordination

This court designates the court clerk as the Youth Diversion Coordinator. The coordinator will:

IX. Administrative Fee

Pursuant to Article 45.312 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, the Court may collect a $50.00 administrative fee from the parent or legal guardian of the participating child to help defray the costs of the diversion program. This fee:

- Must be included as a term in the diversion agreement and accepted in writing by the parent or guardian,
- May be waived by the Court if the parent is found indigent or unable to pay, and
- Shall not be a condition for participation in the program or used as a barrier to diversion eligibility.

All collected fees will be deposited in a local account used exclusively to fund youth diversion operations.
