MOTION TO TERMINATE INCOME WITHHOLDING FROM EARNINGS FOR CHILD SUPPORT

_____. Obligor/Obligee in this suit, moves the Court to terminate the prior order(s) withholding from earnings for child support for the following reasons: Check all that apply

- All children the subject of this suit are 18 years old and are not fully enrolled in an accredited secondary school in a program leading toward a high school diploma.
- All children the subject of this suit are 18 years old and have graduated from high school. A copy of the child's high school diploma or GED certificate is attached.
- A child the subject of this suit has married and there are no other minor children for whom child support is payable. A certified copy of the child's marriage certificate is attached.
- All children the subject of this suit have died. A certified copy of the child(ren)'s death certificate(s) is/are attached.
- The Obligor has died, and there is no prior order of this court that provides that the orders for child support shall be an obligation of the Obligor's estate.
- Other: _____

Movant would show that there are no child support arrearages existing for which there is an order for income withholding from earnings.

Movant requests that all prior orders for income withholding from earnings for child support be terminated effective _____.

MOVANT

ORDER TERMINATING INCOME WITHHOLDING FROM EARNINGS FOR CHILD SUPPORT

On this day, the Court considered the motion of _____ to terminate income withholding for child support.

The Court finds that the motion should be granted because: Check all that apply

- All children the subject of this suit are 18 years old and are not fully enrolled in an accredited secondary school in a program leading toward a high school diploma.
- All children the subject of this suit are 18 years old and have graduated from high school. A copy of the child's high school diploma or GED certificate is attached.
- A child the subject of this suit has married and there are no other minor children for whom child support is payable. A certified copy of the child's marriage certificate is attached.
- All children the subject of this suit have died. A certified copy of the child(ren)'s death certificate(s) is/are attached.
- The Obligor has died, and there is no prior order of this court that provides that the orders for child support shall be an obligation of the Obligor's estate.
- Other: _____

For good cause shown, the Court ORDERS AND DECREES that the prior orders requiring income withholding from earnings from child support are terminated effective _____.

This order affects only an order for income from earnings for current child support and does not in any way terminate an income withholding order for the payment of child support arrearages, if any.
