VI. REMEDIES

6.1 Remedies Generally: Upon an event of default by Company the County may, at its election and in addition to any other rights or remedies at law or in equity and after forty-eight (48) hours written notice to Company, proceed as follows:

- A. Withholding. County may withhold all or any part of any payment otherwise due Company until the default is remedied by Company. No withholding by County shall relieve Company of its obligation to cure the default or perform the work or other obligations under this Construction Contract, a change order, a scope of work, or similar document. County may, on account of subsequently discovered evidence, withhold whole or part of any payment to such extent as may be necessary to protect itself from loss on account of defective work not remedied; or claims filed or reasonable evidence indicating possible filing of claims; or failure of Company to make payments promptly to subcontractors or for material or labor which County may pay as an agent for the Company; or damages to another contractor or subcontractor. When the above grounds to withhold payment are removed, or Company provides a surety bond satisfactory to County, which will protect County in the amount withheld, payment may be released.

- B. Cure. County may provide itself or through others such labor, materials, equipment or other items or services as may be necessary in the County's sole discretion to cure the default of Company or pay its obligations arising out of the work and perform the work or any part or other obligations of Company. - C. Termination. County may terminate Company's right to proceed with performance of the work, in whole or in part, and correct or complete the work or any portion covered by such termination. In the event of termination, Company shall deliver to County all materials and equipment and other work in preparation or progress, and County may, at its option, take possession of and use in completing the work any or all subcontracts and purchase orders or any materials, equipment or other items of Company on the project site at the time of termination.
- D. Withholding At Termination. In the event of termination, County may withhold all payments otherwise due Company as security for the completion of the Work and other obligations of Company, and Company shall not be entitled to any further payment until the Work is completed by County or others at County's direction. If the costs and damages incurred by County on Company's behalf exceed the unpaid balance otherwise due Company, then Company shall not be entitled to any further payment and shall reimburse any shortfall to County upon demand. If such costs and damages do not exceed the unpaid balance otherwise due Company, then County shall pay the balance to Company, but only to the extent of work performed by Company and unpaid by County through the date of termination, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Construction Contract, a change order, a scope of work, or similar document and any other rights of withholding by County. Company agrees that the payments required by this paragraph are its sole and exclusive remedy for a termination for default, and Company hereby waives any claims or rights of recovery for loss of or anticipated profits on unperformed Work or any other loss or damage.

- E. Bond. County may file a notice, claim, or demand against Company's bond requiring the surety to take over and complete the project, tender a new contractor at surety's cost, finance the bond principal's completion of the work, indemnify the parties, or buy out the bond obligation as the situation requires.
